

Democratic Primary Knowledge

Prospective Democratic primary voters are learning more about the candidates as weeks go by, but not as fast as delegates are being elected. Here are some recent results from the National Annenberg Election Survey. The national results are from people who say they are registered voters and intend to vote in their states' Democratic primary or caucus.

Week ending (%)	1/19	1/26	2/2	2/2 for respondents from states voting after Feb. 3
Believe they learned enough to make an informed choice among Democratic candidates	24	27	32	32
Following Democratic race very closely	26	24	33	33
Knew Clark was a general	53	61	67	67
Knew Dean was Governor of Vermont	52	50	52	53
Knew Edwards was son of a mill worker	17	17	27	25
Said Kerry was	5	6	7	8
Said Dean was	5	8	5	4
Knew Edwards was a trial lawyer	19	29	36	37
Knew Clark was a decorated veteran	26	26	17	16
Knew Kerry was a decorated veteran	34	47	56	54
Knew Dean wanted to abolish all of Bush's tax cuts	27	31	29	30
Said Kerry did	5	16	18	16
Said Edwards did	2	6	6	6
Knew Dean opposed the war in Iraq	44	43	46	45
Said Clark did	13	12	12	11
Said Edwards did	4	7	11	11
Said Kerry did	9	18	17	17

###