Presidential Debates -- May 15-21, 2014

Generally speaking, in most presidential elections, they have a total of four presidential debates – three are the presidential debates and one is the vice presidential debate.

QWATCH1. While it is hard to remember exactly what we do, give me the most honest assessment of how many of the 2012 presidential and vice presidential debates you watched live as they were actually occurring. Did you watch...

Presidential Debates -- May 15-21, 2014

QTHIRDPARTY. One element of the debates that has been discussed is the inclusion of third-party or independent candidates in presidential debates. Currently, for a third-party candidate or an independent to be included in a debate that person must have at least 15% in the national polls and have qualified for enough ballots that that person could win a majority of electoral votes. Which of these two statements comes closest to your point of view:

Statement A: The rules for a third-party candidate inclusion should be relaxed so that it is easier for them to be part of the debate. Even if it is unlikely that they will win the presidency, it would make the major candidates respond to their ideas.

Statement B: The rules for a third-party candidate inclusion should not be changed, because the third-party candidates take away from the central purpose of listening to and watching the two people who are most likely to become the president.

Generally speaking, in most presidential elections, they have a total of four presidential debates – three are the presidential debates and one is the vice presidential debate.

QWATCH1. While it is hard to remember exactly what we do, give me the most honest assessment of how many of the 2012 presidential and vice presidential debates you watched live as they were actually occurring. Did you watch...

Presidential Debates -- May 15-21, 2014

I am going to read you a list of complaints some people have voiced about the moderators in the presidential debates. Please tell me whether you are extremely concerned, very concerned, just somewhat concerned, or not at all concerned about each of the following complaints. If you have not noticed this element, please just say so.

QMODERATOR2. The moderators tend to lose control of the debate and the candidates interrupt one another and go over the time limits.

Presidential Debates -- May 15-21, 2014

QTHIRDPARTY. One element of the debates that has been discussed is the inclusion of third-party or independent candidates in presidential debates. Currently, for a third-party candidate or an independent to be included in a debate that person must have at least 15% in the national polls and have qualified for enough ballots that that person could win a majority of electoral votes. Which of these two statements comes closest to your point of view:

Statement A: The rules for a third-party candidate inclusion should be relaxed so that it is easier for them to be part of the debate. Even if it is unlikely that they will win the presidency, it would make the major candidates respond to their ideas.

Statement B: The rules for a third-party candidate inclusion should not be changed, because the third-party candidates take away from the central purpose of listening to and watching the two people who are most likely to become the president.
